SMOKE LIVIERATO & CO.'S HIGH CLASS EGYPTIAN CIGARETTES.

THEY ARE THE CHEAPEST AND THE BEST.

FEW HINTS TO SMOKERS.

FOR the information of the Public, who are misled by blustering advertisements and induced to believe that the CIGARETTES made in Egypt are THE ONLY GENUINE, we beg to draw their attention to the following :—Egypt does not produce any Tobacco at all, and the Cigarettes manufactured there are of Turkish Tobacco, the same as our own Cigarettes. There is no difference, therefore, between the Cigarettes made in Egypt and those made in Aden, as both of them are made of the same Turkish Tobacco and by the same Cigarette Makers, with the only difference that purchasers of Cigarettes made in Egypt have to pay nearly double the prices of those made in Aden.

We, therefore, request all Cigarette Smokers to try a box of the Cigarettes made in Aden, and convince themselves of the above facts.

WRITERS AND READERS.

We are to get another historical romance by Mr. Stanley Weymen in the course of the autumn publishing season. This promises a great output of books, thanks, in part, to the number being held over from the spring. So many are being delayed, that there may really be something of a glut in the autumn.

Dr. Sven Hedin, the eminent traveller, is now on his way from India to England, and publishers are waiting with interest, for tidings of his new book. This account of his most recent travels in Asia is not likely to be less attractive than his previous volume. Accordingly several publishers, here and in America, are more than willing to issue it. Some part of it is already written.

Mr. Murray announces a volume which consists of reminiscences of Queensland in the early days of that Colony. It is by Mr. Edward B. Kennedy, who knew it fully forty years ago, when it was almost a no-man's land. He has many stories of adventure to tell, but the backbone of the book is its picture of the gradual bringing into order of a great area of Australia. It has illustrations, and is entitled "The Black Police of Queensland" in reference to the work of that force in the pioneer days of the Colony.

The council of the Irish Texts Society, of which Professor York Powell is chairman, are endeavouring to secure a Parliamentary grant towards the publication of a calendar of all the Irish manuscripts in the United Kingdom and on the Continent. The better to achieve this end, a circular has been issued to different bodies interested in kindred work, inviting their co-operation in the project. Mr. George Wyndham, as Chief Secretary for Ireland, has promised to receive a deputation on the subject, and the council are hopeful of a successful result.

Horace Walpole said more than a hundred years ago that the Coronation of an English king was the finest sight in the world. The saying is recalled in reference to a Coronation Book of Edward VII., which Messrs. Cassell are to publish. It has been written by the Rev. W. J. Loftie, the well-known archæologist and historian, and it will be published in six parts at a shilling each. He has sought to combine a survey of the coronation of past with a full account of the ceremonial of the present year. Colour printing, according to the most recent methods, is to be employed in the illustration of the book.

Mr. Iwan-Muller's book on Lord Milner and South Africa is finished, and Mr. Heinemann will issue it, almost at once. Originally it was to have been called Lord Milner and his Work, but some people thought this meant a biography of his lordship. With the heresy of writing any man's life while he is still alive, Mr. Iwan-Muller will hold no terms. The new title which has been given the book better indicates what it is—namely, a study of South African history and of Lord Milner's work in that country during recent years. When I first met him, says Mr. Muller of Lord Milner, he was a young student at Kings College, and I was a senior boy at King's College School.

A book entitled The Epistles of Atkins will be published soon by Mr. Fisher Unwin. It seeks to picture, intimately and at first hand, what active service means to the fighting man under modern conditions of warfare. When the campaign in South Africa was new, its operations large, and our soldiers impressionable, they wrote home many personal letters describing their feelings and experiences. This volume gathers some of these lights upon human nature in the ordeal of war into an analytical narrative. Very appropriately it is dedicated to that bonnie fighter Sir Hector Macdonald. It is written by Mr. James Milne, who is the author of memoir of Sir George Grey, the great pro-Consul. There will be twelve illustrations from war sketches.

Next week Messrs. Chatto will publish a volume which contains much lively gossip of Dublin Castle and Dublin Society. There is no nearer clue to the author than his statement that he was a denizen of Dublin for forty years and more. He remembers having seen Sir Henry Irving in Dublin in those far days. Our author was buying a paper at a news shop when two young men, who had the regular Dickens air came in. The news vendor referred to one of them as Mr. Irving, and was asked who's Mr. Irving? Oh, said he, the nicest, most perfect gentleman, so clever and charming in every way. Comes in every morning for his penny paper. Sir Henry, of course, was a member of a company which was then visiting Dublin.

There has been a great demand for the edition of Green's Short History, in forty sixpenny parts, which Messrs. Macmillan recently announced. As a result, the appearance of the first number will be somewhat delayed. The enduring success of this work is a striking comment on the circumstances under which it first appeared. The widow of the historian tells us that—When at last, by a miracle of resolution and endurance, the Short History was finished, discouraging reports reached him from critics whose judgment he respected, and his despondency increased. Never mind; you mayn't succeed this time, said one of his best friends, but you are sure to succeed some day. He never forgot that in this time of depression there were two friends—Mr. Stopford Brooke and his publisher—who were unwavering in their belief in his work and in hopefulness of the result.

Mr. Leon Delbos, one of the instructors on the Britannia, at Dartmouth, is the author of a well-known volume dealing with nautical terms used in English and French. It is for the use of naval officers and naval cadets, and a new edition of it revised, enlarged, and having additional plates, is now being issued by Messrs. Williams and Norgate. In a fresh preface the author remarks:—The object constantly and steadily aimed at has been to provide officers of the naval service with a really useful and essentially modern vocabulary of sea terms and expressions. No attempt has, therefore, been made at absolute completeness. Indeed, if we but bear in mind that of all technical languages the sea language is the richest in vocables, and the most varied in forms of expression, we shall have little difficulty in realising, that absolute completeness cannot be easily obtained.

Mark Twain's new story will probably be issued by Messrs. Chatto about the end of May. It is A Double-Barrelled Detective Story.—Alan St. Aubyn has written a novel entitled The Scarlet Lady, and Mrs. Meade one with the title Margaret. Both will be published by Messrs. White.—Major W. P. Drury whose tales of sea life have been so much admired, is publishing another volume with Mr. A. H. Bullen. It is called the passing of the Flagship, and other Stories. Major Drury belongs to the Royal Marine Light Infantry. Two or three years ago there appeared a sixpenny edition of Lorna Doone, and 150,000 copies of it were quickly sold. This summer, Messrs. Sampson Low will bring out another sixpenny edition of the romance.

Several of the leading American publishers are at present in London, and Mr. Putnam will arrive next week.—Bishop Gore has written an introduction for a volume by Dr. Knox, the Bishop of Coventry, which Messrs. Longman are to publish. It is a series of lectures on pastoral theology.—Lord Roberts is the author of a little volume on The Rise of Wellington which appeared some years ago. A sixpenny edition of it is promised by Messrs. Sampson Low.—Quite early in the autumn we shall get the biography of Robert Buchanan. His career was more stirring than the average literary career, and the book should be very interesting.—Mr. A. G. Little is the author of a volume on Mediæval Wales which Mr. Fisher Unwin is to publish. It deals chiefly with Wales in the twelfth and thirteenth centuries.—Principal Fairbairn's The philosophy of the Christian Religion, will appear in a fortnight. It is a work of 600 pages. Hodder and Stoughton publish it.

Mr. Frank Stockton one of the most popular writers of short stories, has come to a conclusion that eclipses the efforts of many less fortunate modern writers in the art of making his readers laugh—on both sides of the Atlantic. Rudder Grange and the Hundred Weeks and Mrs. Aleshine's Daughter, was published in America by Messrs. Cassell. Mr. Stockton's fifty-fifth year, and it is hoped that many years yet

The HOUSE of COMMONS—AN IRISHMAN'S PROTEST.

TO ENGLISHMEN, SCOTCHMEN, IRISHMEN, and OUR COLONIES!

AN IRISHMAN'S ELOQUENT PROTEST.—Richard Lalor Shiel once startled the House of Commons and the country when the word "alien" was applied to him as an Irishman. "On the field of Waterloo" he exclaimed, "the blood of Englishmen, Scotchmen, and Irishmen flowed in the same stream and drenched the same sod—when the cold grey morning dawned they lay stiff and stark together; in the same trench their bodies were laid; the green corn of spring bursts even now from their commingled dust; the dew falls from heaven upon their union in the grave. Partakers in every peril, are we not to be partakers in glory? Are we to be told we are aliens from that noble country for whose salvation our life blood was poured?" The effect of the speech both inside and outside the House was electrical.

THE MORAL.

"I need not be missed if another succeed me;
To reap down those fields which in spring I have sown.
He who ploughed and who sowed is not missed by the reaper,
He is only remembered by what he has done."

D. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

CHLORODYNE.

COUGHS, COLDS,
ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE (late Army Medical Staff) DISCOVERED a REMEDY to denote which he coined the word CHLORODYNE. Dr. Browne is the SOLE INVENTOR, and as the composition of Chlorodyne cannot possibly be discovered by Analysis (organic substances defying elimination), and since the formula has never been published, it is evident that any statement to the effect that a compound is identical with Dr. Browne's Chlorodyne must be false.
This caution is necessary, as many persons deceive purchasers by false representations.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—Vice Chancellor Sir W. PAGE WOOD stated publicly in Court that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the INVENTOR of CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See The Times, July 13, 1864.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the TRUE PALLIATIVE in NEURALGIA, GOUT, CANCER, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATISM.

CONSUMPTION AND DISEASES OF THE CHEST, THROAT AFFECTIONS, GENERAL DEBILITY, DISEASES OF THE SKIN, WASTING DISEASES OF CHILDREN, RICKETS, AND ALL SCROFULOUS DISORDERS.

SELECT MEDICAL OPINIONS.

DR. PROSSER JAMES,
Lecturer on Materia Medica, London Hospital.
"Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL contains the whole of the active ingredients of the remedy, and is easily digested. Hence its value, not only in Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, but in a great number of cases to which the Profession is extending its use."

DR. HUNTER SEMPLE,
Physician to the Hospital for Diseases of the Throat and Chest, London.
"I have long been aware of the great reputation enjoyed by the LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL introduced into medical practice by Dr. DE JONGH, and have recommended it with the utmost confidence. I have no hesitation in stating my opinion, that it possesses all the qualities of a good and efficient medicine. Its taste is by no means disagreeable, and might even be called pleasant. I have found Dr. DE JONGH'S OIL very useful in cases of Chronic Cough, and especially in Laryngeal Disease complicated with Consumption."

DR. SAUNDERS, C.B.,
Late Deputy-Inspector-General Army Hospitals, Superintendent London Medical Mission.
"I have used Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL extensively among the sick poor of St. Giles's, and consider it a valuable remedy, especially in the Wasting Diseases of Children."

DR. WHITMORE,
Medical Officer of Health, St. Marylebone, London.
"My own somewhat lengthened experience as a Medical Practitioner enables me with confidence to recommend Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT BROWN COD LIVER OIL as being more uniform in quality, more certain in its effects, more palatable, and infinitely less likely to disagree with the stomach than the Pale Oil. If I were asked for an explanation of the marked success which for so many years has attended the administration of Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL, I should say that it is owing to its extraordinary medicinal, dietetic, and regimenal properties, and which are found to exist in no other medicine that I am acquainted with, in such uniform combination."

Dr. DE JONGH'S LIGHT-BROWN COD LIVER OIL is supplied ONLY in IMPERIAL Half-Pints, Pints and Quarts, sealed with SETTS' Patent Capsule impressed on the top with Dr. DE JONGH'S Stamp, and on the side with his Signature, and the Signature of ANSAR, HARFORD & Co.; and bearing under the wrapper a Label with the same Stamp and Signatures.

A TRUE HAIR GROWER

A London business man makes a remarkable offer to readers of this paper. He will send his preparation on trial.

FREE TO YOU

A few years ago the top of my head was entirely bald. My father and grandfather were bald-headed. My mother's hair was naturally very thin also. I was quite reconciled to being bald-headed myself. One day during a trip through Switzerland, I met with a learned elderly gentleman, who in the course of conversation asked me if I were desirous of possessing a luxuriant growth of hair upon my head. Naturally I was interested, and replied in the affirmative. He thereupon stated to me that he had begun a life-long student of chemistry, and that h[illegible] made a feature of hirsutal matters. He gave me a formula and suggested that I have it compounded, which I did upon reaching Geneva, and continued to use the preparation for a short time. In three weeks hair began to assert itself, and within forty days my head was quite covered. I supplied some of the preparation to two friends, one of whom was a lady whose hair had been nearly lost, and the results in each case were astonishing.

Since then I have been selling the preparation, having obtained permission [illegible] so from the savant who made the discovery. I can testify to hundreds of similar instances; in fact it is most wonderful and equally potent in either sex. I have patented my [illegible] nor is it a [illegible] who will [illegible] me pay for postage, etc., saw this announcement send a small box charge, for the purpose value. Then, when to grow, I will [illegible] small charge.
